Contrary to my expectations the proposed amendment to the Constitution, readjusting the basis of representation, passed the Honse on Tneeday, by the requisite majority. I venture to say that the same number of men never before voted for a bill that they had thoroughly denounced in debate. McKee, of Kentucky, voted for the amendment, while Rousseau voted against it. Perhaps it will meet with some objection in the Sepate, but will undoubtedly pass. The miling majority is too therenghy disciplined, and too thoroughly impressed with the lidea that an amendment can bodying the principles in this one is right to bodyling the principles in this one is right to prevent its passage.

PREVENTE IT PRESENTED.

The Freedmen's Bureau bill is now being discussed in the House. The bill is opposed by nest at the Kentucky delegation, neaded by the particular Rousseau. It is asserted by those who claim to know, that President Johnson is opposed to the bill in toto, and yet it with pass and become a law, even over the President's veto. The action, or rather the want of action, on the past of the Kentucky Legislature, deprives the Representatives from Kentucky from having unterial influence in preventing th; establishment of this bureau permanently in that State. "We will protect the rights of our colored citizens," exclaims a Kentucky Copgressman. "And yet," answers a Radical, "your Legislature freines to legislate in any meanner to protect them. Itelm, Wortstigton, McHenry, and others prefer to legislate oppressively rather than protectingly, and they control your Legislature! Tennes as no possible doubt that proper State legislation wou'd rid the State of that which is denounced as a nulsance. The Bureau has been removed from Missouri, and I know that the friends of the white and black man in Kentucky could and would secure its removal from that State if the Legislature would show a little common sense. In place of spending the State's money in deneuring radicals, and appealing to Congressmen to resign, that body had better legislate for the good of the State. Until laws are made, we will tave the Bu can as a "fixture." It is sheer noncense for Representatives to ery out "Negroequality." If justice to the negro, as a free man, is negro equality, and this is all that can be expected of the State, you must have it. ovements can be made that will do honor to

PRESIDENT JOHNSON ROUSSKAU.

This patriotic gentleman is held by conservative Unionists to be a fir representative of the true Unionists of Kentnek. The platform upon which be stands, adopted by the late convention at Frankfint, is theroughly approved by conservative Unionists, and bitterly denounced by extremists. It is well known here that Rousseau stands firmly by the side of Johnson, and for the rights of his State. His influence is felt in every dejartment. Undenoted as Senator he could do your Sinte more good than any other man in it.

Be answered that he drew up the enrolling bill with the expectation that loyal men would be paid for their slaves, and that he "would as soon vote to repudiate the national delt acto vote to repudiate this part of the enrollment law." Those parsons who claim to be able to get pay for slaves now, are simply swindlers. The general practice of employing claim agents to prosecute anything before Washington officers is a species of inmbuggery that jeople will never overcome. Actual observation convinees me that a man can attend to his own claim as well or better that Col. C. D. FRANKFORT, February 6, 1866
In the Senate, Mr. Dudley introduced a bill which provides for the payment of debts of latorers by insolvent debtors in preference to others; which gives the laboer the first lien upon an estate. This very just law passed by a vote of 16 to 12. Mr. J. J. Landram, from the Committee on Recent Political Even's, reported a bill providing that all persons, without distinction of color, within the Common wealth shall be made subject to the same pains and penalties for felonies and in same pains and penalties for felonies and in same pains and penalties.

persons, without distinction of color, within the Commonwealth shall be mide subject to the same pains and penalties for felonies and instance pains and providing the mide orders of the day.

A bill was possed changing the mide land and the repeal of the former acts of the General Assembly which empower the Governor to call on the millita, and also providing that the duties of inspector-General shall be performed by the Adjutant-General, and vacating the office of inspector-General. The salary of the Adjutant-General was fixed at twelve hundred oblars per annum. The Quartermaster-General receives the same salary. The two cilices are allowed a clerk each at a galary of one thousand dollars, with the exception of the officers named, who should be salaried officers, which amendment was adopted. THE PREFEMEN'S BURFAU AND GEN. FISK .-We publish elsewhere a letter from Gen. Fi k of the Freedmen's Bureau, to Hon. J. M. Armstrong, one of our representatives in the Logis-

The letter is frank, and, we think, meets the issue fairly. He declares that he meant to re; resent facts precisely as they were, and that if he in any manner misrepresented them, he will. upon proof, make the amend honorable before the world.

He secures the public that it is his desire t devote himself to the promotion of tranquillity and to aid in rectoring confidence and good eling among our people.

One word now in regard to this question of the Freedmen's Bureau in this State. pretty well known that we should be glad to have the Burean removed from Kentncky. The etter of the act establishing the Bureau, if we are not mistaken, dees not authorize its operations in this State. The Government, however, may think, and we suppose does think, that the spirit of the law and the condition of things in sub-radicals. this State require it. It is certain it is here, and It is certain it would not be here without the ection of the Washington authorities. We of pasty in Kentucky, but only a very feeble told the reactionists in Kentucky last year that they were taking just the course to fix the like the mass of the returned Federal soldier writ of habeas corpus suspended, and to keep up generally a sort of quasi military government, an imperium in imperio, among us, foreign to the genius of republican institution; His hand is against every loval man's hand, and and in opposition to all our principles and feelings. They would not listen to us, however-They went on pell-mell. They had a right to shear the wolf, and they would shear the wolf. If they got bltten in the operation, they necdn't blame us for it. They needn't shake their gory or black or white locks at us. We shame! shame! tried to prevent them from getting biten, and, i they had followed our advice, they wonidn't

The Freedmen's Bureau is a fixed fact among us; and, until the Legislature wipe out the entire slave code and adapt the laws of the State to its altered condition, it will be likely to remain here.

We call attention to the significant fact reported by telegraph from Washington yesterday that the motion of Gen. G. C. Smith, or e of our able Representatives, to exempt Kentacky from the operations of the Bareau was false. We know Mr. Nicho'as Smith, and we voted down by a hundred and thirty-one to don't know a tiner or better man, or a more thirty-four-more than a two-thirds vote. A devoted patriot. He was in the Federal army like proportional vote in the Senate would carr the till over the President's veto, and make it a law. There are nudeniable if disagreeab' facts. We are for dealing with them like sensible, practical meu. We must obey the law, however much we may disapprove of it, while we endeavor to effect its repeal. There is no other rule in a republican government worth the paper npon which it may be written.

We had no part or lot in bringing the presen state of affairs upon Kentucky. We labored rsistertly and with whatever ability we had to ward it off and prevent it. We did not suc ceed. It was not in mortals to encceed under the circumstances. We are now for doing the next best thing that can be done; we are for denounce. Probably he is not a radical, but he moking the most of our situation, for extracting the greatest practicable amount of good from it, and preventing as much evil as possible. If anybody can point out a better course, we should like to have it done.

We are opposed to making any issue with the Government upon this question. We are opposed to snything that looks like another re-

Large discretion will doubtless be reposed in the Commissioner here, as elsewhere; and it will be for our own interests and peace to get along pleasantly and harmoniously. It will be the best for all parties-for the State, for whites and blacks.

Our impression is that Gen. Fisk wishes to do the right thing, to administer the affai s of the Burean in such a manner as to be the least offensive to the community. We infer this from his letter, and we take him at his faith. The friends of Judge Chase appreciate

There are some things that certainly deserve reforming. The negroes, for example, thrust themselves into street or railroad cars against the remenstrances of their owners, and, if the March 2, 1824, by Joseph T. Buckingham died on January 13, 1866, of George Lunt. the remenstrances of their owners, and, if the isiana have decided, and Gen. Canby has sustained the decision, that railroad companie have the right to appropriate certain cars or eats for the freedmen, and that they must occupy them or none; that the companies have only thoroughly conservative paper in Massathe right to establish their own ru'es-subject to the laws-and that the freedmen have no right to violate them. We should suppose that what is cheerfully conceded by both the civil and military anthorities in Louisiana would hard'y be withheld from the citizens of Ken-

Let Gen Fisk exert himself to conciliate, and let our citizens do the same, and there will be no serious trouble. There ought to be a mntual effort made to produce harmony. The public welfare requires it.

We learn upon authority we deem nn estionable that Senstor James H. Laue, of Kansas, intends giving to the President his un flinching support in the great struggle with the

We are gratified to hear this. Mr. Lane is a tower of strength to any cause he may esponse and, though we have not approved his past course and have said some pretty severe thir against him, we shall welcome him into the ranks of the President's supporters with nuleigned pleasure. We know his influence will be felt, and it is certainly needed. The Presi dent needs the hearty support of every Union man in the country, North and South. The mportance of the issues involved is immense. The destruction of Mr. Johnson's policy of res- the object but as an incident of the war. orstion would involve the country in serious calamities, if not civil convulsions and anarchy Hence, every man with a soul within him ough now to show his hand, and let his voice be heard in support of the Union and the Constitution, the States and civil government. The Kansas Legislature, according to the elegraph, has just laid upon the table, almost ananimously, resolutions sustaining the President's policy, and has called for an amendment of the Constitution prepenting the reelection of that official! Now is the time therefore, for Mr. Lane to speak ont. The emergency demands nerve, which he possesses. will make thousands of friends where he has

We believe the true men of the country, ir respective of party, intend to sustain the President-because he is right, and because the welare and safety of the Republic require it.

Actuated by the spirit of fairness, we publish, on our first page this morning, a letter from a member of the "Democratic Central Committee," whose call has been issued for a S ate Convention, In this city, on the first of next May, and which we have subjected to some criticism in our columns. We deem it a sufficient answer to our correspondent to say that, while he admits that "one or two" members of the Committee are original secessionists, he will not deny that all the members were utterly opposed to the war for the Union, and were in cordial and active sympathy with the haps he is, politically, one of the worst of it rehellion. FORGERY.-Yesterday morning, a man o very genteel appearance and good address. called at the People's Bank, and presented for payment to Mr. Huber, the Cashier, a check for $6 680, purporting to have been drawn by the well-known firm of Mitchell & Armstrong of this city. Although the signature was well executed, Mr. Huber mistrusted that something was wrong, and requested the man to tarry a tew minutes until he could wait upon him. To satisfy himself, Mr. Huber referred to the account of the above firm, and discovered that the mount to their credit was considerably less than the check called for. This fact was stated to the man, and the Cashier suggested that there must have been a mistake about it, that the check should have been drawn upon some other bank. Mr. Huber then proposed to send one of his cierks to the house of Mitchell & Armstrong to inquire into the matter. To this the man asled without showing the least uneasiness, and he and the clerk started from the bank in the direction of Mesers, Mitchell & Armstrong's; but they had not gone far before the checkholder turned into some hy-way and made his ape. The bank clerk exhibited the check to the head of the above firm, and was told that it

What say the people?

To the Editors of the Loviseille Journal:

The recent death of Hon. Win. Sampson has created a vacancy on the bench of the Court of Appeals of this State. The name of no one, I beave, has yet been publicly mentioned in connection with the succession. Allow me, therefore, to suggest in your columns the Hon. Thomas A. Marshall, of Louisville, as a gentlemen whose legal quaifications and eratted personal character eminently fit him tor the politica. Judge Marshall has already occupied a scat on the Appellate bench and all members of the legal profession in Kenneks will remember the efficiency with which he discharged his cuities. Let him be placed there again, with his pure character and ripe learning. The people of this Appellate District will, I trust, heartily respond to this suggestion. What say the people?

This would be the best delines against those who had oppressed them in the past. Liberty will graw there provided you protect them in their possessions.

Mr. Tabor, of New York, said the bill proposed to take for the market all the public lands in those States. He offered an amendment as follows: "Providing nothing in this act shal, be so constraid as to preclude those who have been pardoned by the President for participation in the rebellion from the heuents of its provisions." Its believed that it such men sould have hemesteads it would be better that to turn them loose without occapation.

Mr. Chauler, of New York, said this bill involved other very fixed principles of the rights of property, while professedly preventing speculation. From one section it promoted apeculation, and in another section the object of the bill wasto create discention between the races, and to enable the newro to hold the land at the point of the bayonet against the tide of emigration of white population. The question is not so much as to whether the negro is to have the land, but that the white man is not to have it.

Mr. Harding, of Hilmels, said that vast bodies clientd in the West were held by speculators, and he desired some provision be extended to them that would prevent such monopolies. The House disagreed to Taber's amendment by 37 mays against 104 yeas.

The bill went over nutll to-morrow by the expiration of the morning hour.

cuty, but to show respect, and present in brief the condition of the colored race. The amendment abolishing slarely he desited should be entered. He said the colored race was subject to Government, to taxation, to draft, and bear the bardens of state, and shev deserved to be entered with the tight of exercising some of the rights of clizens of the Government.

The President replied that he would make no speech. The best way was to talk plainly and eistinctly. If he had not given evidence in his past course of his friendship for the colored race, there was nothing now he could do to that end. He had eaid, and he repeated it here, that, if the colored man could find no Moses to lead him out of bordage, he would be that Moses and lead them to the land of promite and literry; but he was not willing, under the circumstances, to adopt a policy which would lead to the shedding of blood and the sacrific of their lives. He believed that if the policy which would result in great danger to the colored man. He said, suppose the colored mennew in the South could, by a magic wand, be entranchised to-morrow, what good would result to him?

He then expressed the grounds on which he was opposed to slavery, and said it should now be abolished, and a national gnarantee given in regard to it that could not be revoked. He stated the cvil result which would accrue by lording a principle of the extention of suffrage upon the people of this District or of a state in opposition to the expressed will of a majurity. The Mexican Consulate received an offi-lal communication from Jurazz and the Mils er of Foreign Relations, dated El Paso Del Norte, December 28th.

All the Generals of the Liberal forces gave in their achesion and approval to the decree externing the term of Jurazz as President.

Some French troops had started in the direction of El Paso, but returned after marching forty-two miles. The Republican troops at El Paso are fully prepared to resist the French.

The report that Jurazz had reached San Anterny, Texas, is unfounded. HARTFORM, Feb. 7

The Democratic State Convention assembled here to-day. It is the largest held for many years. Hon. J. E. English, of New Haven, was also Ephraim L. Hyde, of Hartford, for Lieutenant-Governor. Mr. English addressed the Convention in a handsome speech accepting the nemination.

Heschulors were adopted indorsing the restoration policy of President Johnson.

The Union Legislative cancus voted in favor of repealing the specific contract law, by a a large majority; also favoring the postponement of the Congressional election till 1867. IRABQ'RS MIL. Drv. OF THE MINISTEPPI, I.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 22, 1865.

General J. A. Ranclins, Chief of Staff, Washing and C.:

GENTHAL: I have just returned from a partial inspection of the Department of Arkansas. It was my purpose to have extended my visit no cow, and I limited it to Little Rock. The route suntil y traveled remains substantially as it.

inspection of the Department of Arkansas. It was my purpose to have extended my visit up to Fort Smith, but the Arkansas river was too low, and Ilimited it to Little Rock. The route musually traveled remains substantially as it was doring the war—by way of White river, Dutil's Bird, and thence forty-eight miles by relived to Little Rock. The Arkansas is at all seasons too precarious to be relied on. But the White river, lying in the allisson of the Mississippi, retains at all seasons adolpted to water of three and a half feet as far up as Duvali's Bluif. The railroad hence to Little Rock is in good enough condition for all present purposes, and has been restored to the operated to the conseasien of the company who buikt it, and is operated to the satisfaction of General Reynoids, and his Chief Quartermaster. Colonel Notle. It would contribute much to our militar: convenience, as well as to the general interests of the State of Arkansas, if the railroad end to finished to Memphis. I saw Mr. R. C. Brinkley, of Memphis, Fresident of the Railroad Company, who seemed very anxious to finish it, but raid the company had lost se mach by the war that unless he could receive help from the Government he feared he could not undertake it. The road was once in operation from Memphis to Madicon, on the St. Francis I view, with a fine bridge completed over that stream; and at the time the Federal army occupied Memphis, in 1802, he had a thousand tons of railroad from non hand, ready to be applied to the nonlinished section between Madison and Davali's Bluff, but this iron was taken by us and carried away to Columbus (a receive heaved, if we could help him to grade the road from Madison to Duvali's Bluff, and to cut in the woods along the line the necessary number of ties, he would undertake the Mobile and Ohio railroad, then in our military possession from Colombus to Corinth. The costsy bridge over the St. Francis was bruned by the rebel General Hindman. Mr. Brinkley agreed, if we could help him to grade the road irom Madison Mensieur Eloon is going to Earope for a long actioners receive every proper consideration. At the same time I cashed their attention to the poverty of their country, and how much better it would be for them to give their personal attention each to his own affairs rather than bether themselves with the general matters of politics. After leaving Little Rock, I learned that the convention had adjourned. So I hope that things will remain as quiet as before. Indeed, so far as my observation goes, there is perfect satisfaction felt by all classes of people, except on the part of a very few who are looking to luture constitutions in the very few who are looking to luture constitution in the control of the part of a very few who are looking to luture constitution in the control of the control of the part of a very few who are looking to luture constitution in the part of a very few who are looking to luture constitution in the part of a very few who are looking to luture constitution in the part of the south a large number of our officers and seldiers looking out for land and empty ymen; and I doubt not that during the existent of nearestic volume men, and that all branches of business in Arkansas will be stimulated by the presence of a class of men which has not heretofere existed in that State. Single individuals now travel meaned from one point of the State to another, and General Ke, nolds is rare in called inport to allord m itary protection to any one, wants or lack. or lack.

The Adams Express Company Robbery

An Extensive Febian Mass Meeting.

Mampins, Feb. 7. A disastrous file occurred this morning, on the sastrice of Main street, between Washing-ton and Poplar. Seven buildings were de-stroyed. The five originated in the dry gools diller, boot and shoe store; N. Brecker, dry-bods store; and Blumenthal, Friend, Co., othiers. The fire, however, at the same time stroyed everal smaller business establish-bments adjoining. There was only a small rt of the property lanned. The farniture of veral femilies residing above the stores was so, as well as the stocks of goods, almost en-rely destroyed. The loss is estimated at over 1900 000

Rnmors prevailed in the city yesterday to the effect that the United States sloop-of-war Brooklyn had been wrecked at sea, and that all hands on board had been lost. Rumors subsequently had it that it was the Magnolin, which had been lost. There is not the slightest foundation for the report in either shape, and no news of disaster to either of the vessels has been received in this city, at the Brooklyn navyward, or the Navy Department in Washington. A terrific torusdo passed over the village of Newbern, Ga, on the 21th ult, leveling houses, fences, trees, tee, sweeping before it in an instant everything in its path, and killing four and teljurit g about a dozen persons.

A toiler in the mill of the Mechanic Manufecturing Company, at Peterburg, Va., expleded on Friday Isst, shattering the building, and killing four and wounding ten of the employees.

Further arrests have been made of robbers of ie company.
